"An honest tale speeds best being plainly told."
NEXT SATURDAY

We commence to alter and connect 30 West Fourteenth
st. to our present store. Alterations, when completed, will give additional space much needed for enterprise and sale. These and other contemplated changes will temporarily cramp our present stores and occasion sacrifices named below.

SILKS.
THIRTY-FOUR CENTS
is not too much for fine Summer Silks. At that price about fifty pieces will be offered. When sold we know not where to buy duplicates for less than double.

NINETY-SIX CENTS WILL BUY
splendid quality satin rhadamens, all colors; will also buy elegant fancy Plaid and Stripes for undershirts and for combinations—all worth $1.50.

NINETY EIGHT CENTS WILL BUY
elegant Roman and two-toned Striped Velvets, worth $1.50. Will also buy fine quality Dress Velvets and Upholstery Flannels.

YOU CAN BUY BLACK SILKS
at far lower prices than 20c. per yard. They were it not for coming alterations—we must have space.

Hand-in-hand, reducing prices come

To former customers we need hardly say that all quotations are for new goods. To others we would state that all goods are sold the reason being—We have carried stock from year to year. Above Dresses and Wraps were made this season. Goods named below are also new.

As stated, we offer about 2,000 Ladies' White Dresses.
FOR MISSES' WAISTES.
300 Dresses, $2.00 to $7.00; worth $5 to $15.

AT NINETY-EIGHT CENTS,

AT TWO DOLLARS and seventy-five cents,
cloth Jackets; worth $4.50.

AT FOUR DOLLARS and ninety-eight,
others worth seven dollars.

We never showed as fine a stock of Misses' Dresses and Wraps as we are showing now. The continued changes will temporarily greatly interfere with our department, as addition joins our second floor just before the close of the season. Above Dresses and Wraps were made this season. Goods named below are also new.

READ ON—WONDERS YET REMAIN.
AT TWENTY-NINE CENTS,
WOOL LACES—yard wide, worth $1.
WOOL LACES—ten inches wide, FINE CENTS.

AT TWENTY-NINE CENTS,
a thousand pieces of Swiss Flouncings, worth 70 cents.
EVERYBODY KNOWS,
or ought to know, that our stock of buttons and of slaps is the largest and the finest in the city.
In view of contemplated alterations, larger than it ought to be—therefore expect extra inducements,
one of which will be
CLASPS FOR DRESSES AND FOR WRAPS,
oxidized bronze and polished steel.
TWENTY CENTS and a half.

When all is regular and each day has its work, with no disturbing elements, as against all other stores our department of
WASH DRESS FABRICS
is easily the first—without dispute the largest in this or any other city, and now, with its enormous stock (triple that of any in competition shown), it is needing space, in anticipation of temporarily losing space, will offer the newest and the finest goods at prices hitherto unknown.

AT SEVENTEEN CENTS and three-quarters,
Nearly three thousand pieces of the finest French Hosiery—beautiful styles, light and dark, fancy and plain, polka dots, plaids, medium and large—styles that would be excellent value at 50c.

AT EIGHT CENTS and three-quarters,
Nearly fifty cases of finest domestic Hosiery, all new,
many copies of the choicest French—hundreds and hundreds of designs and colorings—by far the largest assortment of hosiery that you have ever seen—all twelve and six, extra quality.

AT FIVE CENTS and seven-eighths,
A lower quality, such as are at nine cents sold.

AT THREE CENTS and seven-eighths,
Standard Calicoes and Cambrics; fast colors.

AT TWO CENTS and seven-eighths,
Linen Dutch Lawns of extra quality—best designs.

FORTUNATELY OR UNFORTUNATELY, as you will find the steam brought to seven cases of the Stock novelty in French Hosiery, Cambrics, Cloth, and Raglans and exquisite styles in Tulle, Valenciennes, Boucle and stout stripes, and Egyptian Cloth, which you will elsewhere search for in vain—all these, together with stock previously on hand, will be sold at prices that will reap a vast.

THIRTY-THREE CENTS WILL BUY
Scotch Zephyrs, for which price elsewhere is 50c.

TEN CENTS will buy French Etamines—any color.

SIX CENTS will buy Canvas Cloth—cooling shades.

Twelve CENTS and a half will buy
Crimpled Seersuckers—in infinite variety.

FOUR CENTS and seven-eighths will buy Crimpled Seersuckers—"as natural."

Twelve CENTS and a half will buy French Batiste
full yard wide.

EVERY DAY, at every hour, there are bargains offering, but Friday is especially bargain day.

We offer and close all accumulations, all remnants, all odd lots. There are always new goods—Friday prices preclude old stock.
